3.) Mr. L. Lingaiya, Prob. Asst. Comr., was posted as Personal Asst. to the Minister for Local Self Govt in G.O. No. 2713-57/C.B. 125-47-1 dated 6th Nov. 1947. He reported himself for duty as P.A. to the Minister on the afternoon of 31st Oct. 1947.

4. Under existing orders Mr. Lingaiya will, as P.A. to Minister, draw his pay as Prob. Asst. Comr viz Rs 200/- pm thus a duty allowance of Rs 35/- pm. which is attached to the post.

5) The post of the P.A. to the Minister is generally held by a first Div Clerk of the Gen. & Rev Secrt On a previous occasion Mr B Narayana, First Div Clerk Gen and Rev. Secrt, who held the post of P.A. to the Minister for Edn., was continued as such even after he was appointed as a Probationer in the Excise Dept. He was exempted from Probation and training and was permitted to draw a pay of Rs 250/- in the grade of Rs 250-40½-450 On a representation from him Mr Narayana was designated as Asst Secy and allowed to draw a adl allowance of Rs 50/- pm as in the case of officers from other Depts taken on to the Secrt as Asst Secy to Govt In this connection kind reference is invited to our discussions in Cs file No. 105-47-(2). "H"

6) Mr Luigaiya is a Prob Asst Comr. He has been exempted from training in the marginally noted items. drawing a pay of Rs 200/- pm & he has submitted a representation for grant of exemption from certain items of training prescribed for Prob. & confirmation as Asst Comr Asst Comrs and it is separately under

under consideration. 35 PS/0 3210/CB3

7) mr Lingaiya entered service as a Probationary asst Conr on 10.8.46 and the Probationary period of two years will expire on 9.8.1948.

8) The point for consideration is whether the case of mr Lingaiya is similar to that of mr B. Narayana and whether the grant of entrance D.A to him as in the case of mr Narayana is admissible.

11) I think that as in the case of Mr B Narayana Mr L Lingiah may also be given a daily allowance of Rs. 50/- pm (as Rs 35/ pm) from the date he joined duty as P-A to the DIM for L S G

12) The cases are quite different Mr Narayana had passed not merely the obligatory examinations necessary for his Department, but a good many more in addition He had worked in various offices including the taluk office Therefore exempting him from Training did not mean that any Special favour was shown to an untrained man, but merely that the actual Situation was recognised. If in the present case also the officer is equally qualified, I have no objection to his being shown similar concession and given a similar allowance. If however he has not passed all the obligatory examinations and undergone the necessary training or been exempted therefrom, he cannot get the same allowance. 5652-/X

13) In other words exemption can be given from training if at least the obligatory examinations have been passed the proposed concession may be given.

15) From the Civil List corrected up to 1st July 1947, it is seen that Mr. M. Lingiah Probationary Asst. Secy. has passed the following local examinations:—

(1) Revenue Higher
(2) Criminal Higher
(3) Accounts Higher
(4) Excise
(5) Registration
(6) Civil part I
(7) Civil part II

16) Mr. Lingiah has submitted a separate representation requesting that he may be exempted from undergoing the remaining terms of training and that he may be confirmed as Assistant Commissioner in any of the existing vacancies. This file separately is under circulation to the Ministers for orders.

For his representation Mr. Ringiah has stated that he took his B.Sc. degree in the year 1932 and in August 1933 he was appointed as Probationary Excise Inspector. He has further stated that he has worked as Excise Inspector for a period of ten years nearly and as Special Officer for Depressed Classes amelioration work for nearly two years and as Amildar for a further period of two years.

14) From the above it is seen that Mr. Ringiah has passed all the obligatory examinations and has also worked in different capacities for nearly 14 years.

Submitted for orders. Ref a. paras 12 & 14.
